

CVIR

SCIENTIFIC WRITING WORKSHOP

CVIR will host another Scientific Writing Workshop, this time in cooperation with SOBRICE and SIDI, on the occasion of the SOBRICE 2024 congress.

The workshop will address key issues, including:

- improved manuscript structure
- international reporting guidelines
- how to respond to reviewers

October 18, 2024, 09:45-12:00, Room Egaz Moniz
Centro de Convenções Rebouças, São Paulo, Brazil

CVIR

sobrice

SIDI

SCIENTIFIC WRITING WORKSHOP

hosted by CVIR, SOBRICE and SIDI

Friday, October 18, 2024 - 09:45-12:00

Room Egaz Moniz

Time	Session Title	Speaker(s)
09:45-09:50	Welcome and introduction The speakers will welcome participants and give them an overview of the program.	All speakers
09:50-10:10	How to structure a manuscript CVIR Editor-in-Chief Prof. Klaus Hausegger will cover this crucial topic in writing and share his insights on how to structure your next manuscript.	Klaus Hausegger
10:10-10:30	International reporting guidelines Drawing from decades of experience in research, SIDI President Dr. Ethel Rivas Zuleta will outline the importance of guidelines, why they exist, and of course, cover the most common ones and why you should be utilizing them.	Ethel Rivas Zuleta
10:30-10:50	How to respond to reviewers CVIR Regional Editor Prof. Joaquim Maurício da Motta Leal Filho will share his wisdom in this session on how to address reviewer comments when submitting your revision.	Joaquim Maurício da Motta Leal Filho
10:50-12:00	Hands-on activity: practical example The speakers will guide participants through a dummy paper, working together to highlight what can be improved and what was done well. This session is designed to get the audience involved and to build on the skills highlighted in the short presentations given by the speakers using a practical example.	All speakers

Speakers information:

- Klaus Hausegger – CVIR Editor-in-Chief
- Ethel Rivas Zuleta – SIDI President
- Joaquim Maurício da Motta Leal Filho – CVIR Regional Editor